Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock there was a meeting of this committee on the industrial portion of the parade at the Arcanum club, Chairman Henry F. Ulmer presiding. This committee is made up of representatives of nine large factories and they are all practically pledged to have a float in the parade. All the other manufactories will be solicited with that end in view. There was some talk as to whether they would have the employes march behind the floats, but it was deemed inadvisable inasmuch as so many of them are in organizations which will participate.

Anniversary - Woman's Auxiliary Meets at Mrs. Lyman's-General

NORWICH TOWN.

On Friday evening the twentieth anniversary of the Epworth league was held. Mrs. George Manning, president of the league, was in charge. The meeting was opened by the singing of two hymns, Day is Dying in the West and How Firm a Foundation, with chorus by the choir. Responsive reading, prayer, collection and two songs by the Juniors preceded the admission into the Epworth league of a class of Juniors consisting of Martha Brown, Viola Vergason, Edith Douglass, Gladye Miner and Edwin Vergason. Miss Marion Randall, superintendent of the Junior league, made the presentation speech, and they were received into the league by Mrs. Manning, the president.

their organizations are to take in the celebration, either by parading or by having a float. There will be a large turnout of Odd Fellows, the two divisions of Hibernians will parade, the temperance organizations and the Tierney cadets will parade, while the Italian Scandinavian and Polish societies will participate. Among those which will have floats are the N. E. O. P., W. C. T. U., St. Anne's society and the Colonial club.

Business Agent M. J. Kelly informed Business Agent M. J. Mr. Editor: Isn't the time approaching, and nearly here, when, in the interest of the public generally, who may not be so fortunate as to own automobiles, something shall be done to relieve them from the overriding and oppression of those who do own and run them? On the street where I live—Broadway—the abuse of the highway is more constant, and perhaps more dangerous than anywhere else in the city, because on Main street or other of the business streets the traffic is so congested as to make a natural obstruction to improper speed, while from the top of Broadway Hill there stretches an almost unobstructed highway over which any speed ap-Automobiles. highway over which any speed ap hears to be allowed. Those of us whilve on that street can give the name live on that street can give the names of such as abuse the proprieties in running their machines, and of those who observe them. The latter are in a small minority. The street is used much, in the afternoon particularly, for nurses and children, and I have seen several very narrow escapes at the street crossings, when the motor cars dashed by at a speed in which no vehicle should be permitted to travel on a public highway. The story is old, that no automobilist regards the rights of any others on the highway. It should not be true of any, but it unfortunate-
